SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of 3 year(s)

☒ See continuation page

The defendant shall report to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

The defendant shall not illegally possess a controlled substance.

For offenses committed on or after September 13, 1994:

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as directed by the probation officer.

☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended based on the court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse. (Check if applicable.)

☒ The defendant shall not possess a firearm as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921. (Check if applicable).

If this judgment imposes a fine or a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such fine or restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release in accordance with the Schedule of Payments set forth in the Criminal Monetary Penalties sheet of this judgment.

The defendant shall comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). The defendant shall also comply with the additional conditions on the attached page (if indicated above).

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- 1) the defendant shall not leave the judicial district without the permission of the court or probation officer;
- 2) the defendant shall report to the probation officer and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month;
- 3) the defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer;
- 4) the defendant shall support his or her dependants and meet other family responsibilities;
- 5) the defendant shall work regularly at a lawful occupation unless excused by the probation officer for schooling, training or other acceptable reasons;
- 6) the defendant shall notify the probation officer ten days prior to any change in residence or employment;
- 7) the defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol;
- 8) the defendant shall not frequent places where controlled substances are illegally sold, used, distributed, or administered;
- 9) the defendant shall not associate with any persons engaged in criminal activity, and shall not associate with any person convicted of a felony unless granted permission to do so by the probation officer;

Judgment - Page 4 of 6

DEFENDANT: Michael David Booth

Continuation of Conditions of ☒ Supervised Release ☐ Probation

16. Defendant shall allow the supervising probation officer, upon reasonable request, to inspect and examine any personal computing device or equipment which Defendant owns or operates.
17. Defendant shall not be self-employed, nor shall he be employed by friends, relatives or associates, unless he obtains the advance approval of the probation officer.
18. Defendant shall obtain prior approval before seeking employment in any business considered within the financial industry, including a leasing agent, from the supervising probation officer, who may restrict that employment.
19. Defendant shall provide the supervising probation officer with access to any requested financial information, including authorization to conduct credit checks and obtain copies of his Federal income tax returns, and shall provide such access and authorization promptly upon request.
20. Defendant shall, upon request of the supervising probation officer, surrender or make available for review, any and all documents and records of any business or enterprise in which he maintains an interest.
21. Defendant shall disclose all assets and liabilities to the supervising probation officer. Defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey or secret any asset, without the advance approval of the supervising probation officer.
22. Defendant shall not incur any new debt, open additional lines of credit, or enter into any financial contracts, without the advance approval of the supervising probation officer.
23. Defendant is prohibited from possessing or having access to any firearm, dangerous weapon, or ammunition, including any explosive device. This prohibition continues even after the period of supervision, unless that right is specifically restored to Defendant according to federal law.
24. Defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer regarding a mental health evaluation. Defendant shall follow any treatment recommendations and complete any programs as directed by the supervising probation officer. To the extent that they include taking prescribed medications, that will be dealt with by the probation officer upon consultation with Defendant and any medical care provider, and will not be automatically ordered based on the mental health provider without Defendant having a physician and input, to the requirement that Defendant take medication. Defendant shall allow reciprocal release of information between the probation officer and treatment provider. Defendant shall contribute to the cost of treatment according to his ability, as determined by the supervising probation officer.
25. Defendant shall submit his person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search, conducted by or at the direction of the supervising probation officer, in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of violation of a condition of supervision. Failure to submit to search may be grounds for revocation. Defendant shall warn persons with whom he shares residence that the premises may be subject to search.
26. Defendant shall abstain from the use of illegal controlled substances, and shall submit to testing (including urinalysis and patch), as directed by the supervising probation officer, in order to confirm his continued abstinence from these substances.
